

Questions to Ponder:

1. Why would John keep reminding us that certain events were to fulfill Scripture?
2. How does Jesus' command for John to take care of Mary demonstrate what the church should look like?
3. What is it about the cross that makes you most thankful?
4. Take the time to thank Jesus that all the work of salvation was finished by Him on the cross.

“Children of God, you who by faith received Christ as your all in all, tell it every day of your lives that ‘It is finished.’ Go and tell it to those who are torturing themselves, thinking through obedience and mortification to offer satisfaction. All the pains that God asks, Christ has suffered. All the satisfaction by way of agony in the flesh that the law demands, Christ has already endured. ‘It is finished!’.”

- C.H Spurgeon -

Next Sunday, October 14th – John 19:31-37
